Agenda:

- 1. Selection of Executive Committee through Lottery
- 2. Briefing on rules for the constitution of Executive Committee
- 3. Formation of Executive Committee
- 4. Any other matters
- 5. Vote of thanks

The selection was conducted for the classes where more than one nomination was received. Recording of the same was noted. After the final members were selected as per the list attached, the Vice Chairperson Mrs. Urvashi Khandelwal. The two joint secretaries elected were Ms. Abha Khandelwal and Nita Dhembre. From the staff, Mr. Sujit Dive was selected as a Secretary.

The principal briefed the members on the rules of the Executive Committee and also about their responsibilities. The principal said that the PTA members were the bridge between the School and parents and asked for co-operation from PTA members keeping the main objective of growth and development of children in vision.

Responding to a query of one the PTA members Mrs. Abha Khandelwal, principal explained that as per New Education Policy (NEP) , children up to class 2 are not supposed to carry books homes. In case of any doubts, the parents can communicate with the teacher concerned and get the learning outcomes to be taught in school. The parents can also access the school website , where monthly syllabus is uploaded to know the curriculum of the school.

Principal appealed to the members to avoid giving children mobile phones, laptop and internet connectivity, which may harm their mental health and spread the message to other parents also.

In response to another PTA Member's (Mrs. Pallavi Nathani) question, principal cleared that the students could have lunch in the school during exam time, required they should inform the school authorities well in advance.

The councillor urged the PTA members to inculcate the values of ownership and sense of responsibility among students which is very important for their overall development.

Since there were no other matters, the principal thanked everyone for their support and wished them the very best.

Since matters were discussed as per Agenda, the meeting was called to an end with vote of thanks.
