School activities and programmes are continued as per the school calendar.

Parents raised concerns regarding the provision of lunch during the exam days.

It was clarified that food arrangements will be planned appropriately for students during exams, provided a note regarding the same should be sent in the communication book.

Other Matters

A concern was raised regarding the scheduling of exams during the festival time and was asked to shift the exam dates .It was clarified the school calendar has been prepared bearing in mind the required number of working days as per the mandate.

No-Bag Day activities will be conducted on Saturdays as planned.

It was suggested that online examination results be made available one day in advance of PTM, so that parents can review and discuss them. The suggestion will be considered for implementation from the next examination/result cycle.

A concern was raised regarding the type and formats of questions asked in examinations and practice of such questions should be taken ..It was noted that such practice is already being incorporated during classroom teaching.

It was suggested that questions (Maths), particularly lengthy/double questions, should be presented clearly. It was discussed wherever appropriate, simple and concise versions of questions may be used to ensure that students understand what is being asked.

The quality of the I-card strings was discussed. The strings have already been changed/replaced to address the issue.

The participation of parents in workshops provided by school was discussed. It was observed that parent participation was limited. Further efforts are made to encourage greater parent participation in future workshops.

It was suggested that the school newspaper prepared by students has to be circulated through the class groups for the information of parents and students.

It reiterated that the school maintains transparency in its communication and functioning.

The importance of timely and clear communication among the school, teachers and parents was emphasized.

Since matters were discussed as per Agenda, the meeting was called to an end.
